Help us to prepare for the advent season this year!

Please bring your favorite Nativity set to the church on either Sunday, November 5th or the 12th to be photographed for a special Central UMC Nativity Advent Calendar. You can bring your Nativity set to the Welcome Desk before worship service (8:30am or 11:00am service) and can pick them up afterwards. The printed Nativity Advent Calendars will be ready on the first Sunday of Advent, December 3rd and will include a daily scripture reading and a photo of a CUMC member's Nativity set.

Please contact Pastor Kelly with any questions: KellyB@centraltolife.org

Generations Caring for the Earth Together is the theme of New Mexico Interfaith Power & Light (NMIPL). This fall gathering will be Saturday, November 4th, 2 - 5 p.m. at CUMC in the Life Center. Central United Methodist Church will receive a Seed award which is given to faith communities who have cared for creation and addressed climate change in the past year. In addition, Maurice Ikle, chairman of our Board of Trustees, will receive a Sprout award given to individuals who have done exceptional work in creation care activities. Music by Somos Los Otros.

For more information, please check with the front desk for event flyers.

OCTOBER IS "CLERGY APPRECIATION MONTH" HOW CAN I SUPPORT OUR PASTORS?

Encourage the pastor to care for his/her physical health by resting when overworked and not working when ill.

Pray for the pastor and his/her spouse/family and let him/her know that you are doing so.

Encourage the pastor to engage in hobbies and enjoyable recreational activities outside the church setting
